

Protected Mammal Course

Disturbing a protected mammal or its habitat is a serious offence that can result in prosecution and significant fines.

This course will help give you an understanding of:

- Legislation that covers protected mammals
- The potential impact (fines and prosecution) resulting from incorrect action.
- How to undertake work activity within a protected mammal habitat
- Mitigation measures that can be adopted and protocol.

Species covered will include:

- Bats
- Badgers
- Nesting Birds

We will also touch on protected birds of prey

The course is ideal for anyone involved in forestry and construction activities where you may come across a protected mammal/bird habitat.

The course will involve a mixture of classroom and outdoor activity so please ensure you bring warm/waterproof clothing with you.
